

Timbered Cottage with Red Windows

Old-Times Magic

The timbered cottage with red windows is located in the centre of Hlinsko in the protected urban area of Betlém Hlinsko, which belongs to the Collection of Folk Architecture Vysočina. The building is located near the river Chrudimka, in a quiet part of town suitable for relaxation. In its immediate surroundings the most famous Hlinsko artists: the painter Jaroslav Šmídra and the sculptor Karel Lidický used to live. The surrounding countryside offers trips to many interesting places because Hlinsko is located in a picturesque landscape on the boundary of two protected landscape areas, namely the Protected Landscape Area of the Železné Hory and the Protected Landscape Area of the Žďárské Vrchy.

The estimated age of this timbered house is about 200 years. In 2012 it underwent an extensive reconstruction and now it offers cozy accommodation in an old style for up to 8 guests.

On the ground floor there is a large common room with a kitchen unit, a fridge and an old stove with a furnace. Here visitors can spend peaceful days and evenings together. According to the old tradition one adult or two children can sleep comfortably on the furnace. On the ground floor there is a shower and two toilets. In the attic there are two bedrooms one for three and the other for four people.

In front of the house there is a pleasant sitting under grown trees, children can play in the nearby playground. You can spend here extended weekends throughout the year, celebrate smaller events or enjoy a great holiday. The cottage is also ideal for two families or smaller corporate events. It is designed for those who want to spend time together and do not want to be disrupted by other guests.

You can reserve your stay in this timbered cottage by phone or by email.
